

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Donte Lofton,

Case No.: 2:21-cv-00244-KJD-BNW

Plaintiff,

SCHEDULING ORDER

V.

Nev Dept of Corrections, et al.,

Defendants.

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (Fed. R. Civ. P.) 16(b) and Local Rule (LR)

16-1(b), the Court enters the following Scheduling Order for this case.

Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

I. GENERAL DISCOVERY REQUIREMENTS

The parties are now granted leave to serve discovery. Discovery must be completed within 180 days from the date of this Order, which is December 27, 2022.

All disclosures and discovery requests must be “proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties’ relative access to relevant information, the parties’ resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). All disclosures and discovery requests, responses, and objections must be signed by the sending attorney or pro se party, with a Rule 26(g)(1) certification that, to the best of the signor’s belief formed after a reasonable inquiry: (A) disclosures are complete and correct at the time made; and (B) discovery requests, responses, or objections are consistent with the rules and not frivolous, are not for any improper purpose (such as to harass, cause delay, or needlessly increase costs), and are not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive.

1 Discovery requests must be served by the parties pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5. Discovery
2 requests and responses must not be filed with the court unless such discovery is submitted in 3 support of or in response to a motion. LR 26-7. All discovery requests must be served at least 30
4 days prior to the discovery cut-off deadline. Any discovery request served thereafter is untimely.

5 II. MANDATORY DISCLOSURES

6 The defendants in prison civil rights cases often hold a disproportionate share of the 7 relevant information and prisoners have limited means and access to discovery. Therefore, the 8 scope of mandatory disclosures required in this case will be broader than that outlined in Fed. R.
9 Civ. P. 26(a). Disclosures required by this Scheduling Order must be in the form prescribed by 10 Fed. R. of Civ. P. 26. Disclosures must be exchanged among the parties but must not be filed with 11 the court.

12 A. General Content of Mandatory Disclosures: All parties are required to produce
13 information, items, and documents in their possession or control relevant to their own and other
14 parties' claims and defenses, using the concept of relevance set forth in Rule 26(b)(1). Mandatory
15 Disclosures must include all relevant information that, to the party's or the party's employer's 16 knowledge, pertains to any party's claims or defenses in this case, including the names of 17 individuals likely to have discoverable information, along with the subject of the information.
18 The parties must also produce all information, items, documents, photographs, and video or audio
19 recordings in their or their employer's possession or control that are relevant to the issues in this 20 case. Disclosures may be made in a redacted form, if necessary, for security or privilege purposes.

21 B. Protection from Disclosure: For any undisclosed relevant documents that are 22 alleged to be subject to nondisclosure, the disclosing party must provide the opposing party a 23 security/privilege log describing each withheld document with sufficient particularity to allow the 24 other party to determine whether the document was properly withheld.

25 C. Timing of Mandatory Disclosures: The parties' mandatory disclosures must be 26 served no later than 60 days after an answer or dispositive motion has been filed unless 27 disclosures are stayed.

1 D. Supplementation: If the parties discover additional information, items, or 2 documents subject to disclosure or responsive to a discovery request at any time, the parties must
3 send it in a supplement to the opposing party. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).

4 III. GENERAL DISCOVERY PROCEDURES

5 In addition to mandatory disclosures, the following types of discovery may be used to 6 obtain information not included in the mandatory disclosures set forth in this Order. “Party” means
7 each separate plaintiff or defendant.

8 A. Interrogatories: An interrogatory is a written question or request for 9 information and “may relate to any matter that may be inquired into under Rule 26(b).” Fed. R.
10 Civ. P. 33(a)(2). No more than 25 interrogatories, with each subpart being counted as a separate
11 interrogatory, may be sent to any party. Parties may seek the Court’s permission to request more 12 than the maximum amount.

13 B. Requests for Production: A request for production is a written request that 14 the opposing party produce documents or electronically stored information, “including writings,
15 drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data
16 compilations,” or a written request that the opposing party produce any designated tangible things.
17 Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a)(1). No more than 25 requests for production may be sent to any party.
18 Parties may seek the Court’s permission to request more than the maximum amount.

19 C. Requests for Admission: A request for admission is a written request that 20 the opposing party “admit, for purposes of the pending action only, the truth of any matters within 21 the scope of Rule 26(b)(1)” that relate to “(A) facts, the application of law to fact, or opinions
22 about either; [or] (B) the genuineness of any described documents.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(1). No
23 more than 25 requests for admission may be sent to any party. Parties may seek the Court’s
24 permission to request more than the maximum amount.

25 D. Discovery Responses: Responses to written discovery must be served
26 within 30 days after the request is served. Boilerplate objections are disfavored and may be
27 summarily overruled by the court. Responses to document requests must include all documents

1 within the party's care, custody, or control. Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a)(1); LR 26-7. Documents are
 2 deemed within a party's possession, custody, or control if the party has actual possession, custody,
 3 or control thereof, or the legal right to obtain the property on demand.

4 If a party requires additional time to serve responses to discovery requests, the party who
 5 requires an extension must meet and confer with the opposing party to attempt to reach a stipulation
 6 regarding a new deadline. If a stipulation is reached, the stipulation must be filed with the court,
 7 accompanied by a proposed order, identifying the new proposed response deadline. If the parties
 8 cannot agree on a new deadline, the party seeking additional time must file a motion to extend the 9 response deadline prior to the expiration of the deadline.

10 IV. EXTENSIONS OF DISCOVERY

11 An extension of the discovery deadline will not be allowed without a showing of good
 12 cause for the extension. LR 26-3. All motions or stipulations to extend discovery must be filed
 13 with the Court at least 21 days before the expiration of the subject deadline.¹

14 The motion or stipulation must include:

15 A. A statement specifying the discovery completed by the parties as of the date of the 16 motion or stipulation;

17 B. A specific description of the discovery which remains to be completed;

18 C. The reasons why such remaining discovery was not completed within the time limit 19 of the existing discovery deadline; and

20 D. A proposed schedule for the completion of all remaining discovery.

21 V. RESOLVING DISCLOSURE AND DISCOVERY DISPUTES:

22 Discovery motions must be filed and served no later than 15 days after the close of 23 discovery, which is January 11, 2023.

24 A. Meet and Confer Requirement: Prior to filing a discovery motion, the parties must 25 first undertake a good faith effort to resolve any dispute among the parties. A discovery motion

26 ¹ A request made within 21 days of the subject deadline must be supported by a showing of good cause as to why the 27 21-day deadline was not met. LR 26-3. A request made after the expiration of the subject deadline will not be granted unless the movant also demonstrates that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect. Id.

1 will not be considered unless the movant has made a good-faith effort to meet and confer with the
 2 opposing party before filing the motion. In order to comply with the meet and confer requirement,
 3 an incarcerated party is required to send a written communication to opposing counsel or party
 4 explaining, with specificity, the discovery dispute, and a request to hold a telephonic meet and 5 confer session.

6 B. No Initial Court Involvement: The parties should not send notice of their dispute,
 7 their discovery requests, responses, objections, or correspondence regarding disputes to the court
 8 unless the parties are unable to first work out their differences among themselves. In that event, 9 such items should be included only as exhibits attached to a motion to compel or a response to 10 such a motion.

11 C. Contents of Discovery Motion: If the meet and confer efforts are unsuccessful, the 12 party seeking to compel discovery, or a protective order, may file a discovery motion. The motion 13 must include the following: (1) a declaration providing the details and results of the meet-and-
 14 confer conference about each disputed discovery request; and (2) the full text of each discovery
 15 request and disputed response at issue.

16 VI. AMENDED PLEADINGS

17 Any and all pleadings that may be brought under Fed. R. Civ. P. 13 & 14, or joining
 18 additional parties under Fed. R. Civ. P. 19 & 20, must be filed within 60 days from the date of this 19 Order, which is August 27, 2022. Any party causing additional parties to be joined or brought into 20 this action must contemporaneously serve a copy of this Order upon the new party or parties.

21 Amendments to pleadings as provided for under Fed. R. Civ. P. 15, if the same are allowed
 22 without leave of court, or motions for leave to amend, must comply with LR 15-1, and must be 23 filed and served within 60 days from the date of this Order, which is August 27, 2022.

24 VII. DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS

25 Motions for summary judgment must comply with the requirements of LR 56-1 and must 26 be filed and served no later than 30 days after the close of discovery, i.e., by January 27, 2023.

27 //

1 VIII. PRETRIAL ORDER

2 Pursuant to LR 16-3(b), the parties must file a proposed Joint Pretrial Order 30 days past
 3 the date for filing motions for summary judgment, which is February 27, 2023.

4 In the event dispositive motions are filed, the proposed Joint Pretrial Order must be filed
 5 30 days after a decision of the dispositive motions is entered.

6 IX. MISCELLANEOUS

7 No motion filed beyond the time limit fixed by this Scheduling Order will be considered
 8 by the Court unless the Court grants an exception for good cause shown.

9 X. CONCLUSION
